

New producers and hobby farmers webinar

ISC Webinar Series - 2026

Integrity Systems

red meat customer assurance

New to owning livestock?

Only have a handful of cattle, sheep or goats on your property?

Join this webinar to make sure you understand your red meat integrity system requirements!

Presented by Integrity Systems Company (ISC), this webinar will feature a high-level overview of property identification codes (PICs), biosecurity requirements, livestock movements, and ISC and state department requirements.

This webinar is relevant to hobby farmers and small landholders across Australia.

All registrants will receive a post-webinar email including a video link to the webinar, a question and answer transcript and other resources.

Who is this webinar for?

This webinar has been designed to address the specific needs of hobby farmers and small landholders, but the content is relevant to anyone handling livestock, including farm owners, managers, overseers, farm hands and agricultural teachers.

Thursday 21 May 2026, 7pm AEST

SA/NT: 6:30pm (ACST) | WA: 5pm (AWST)
