

Stand by what you sell

eNVD INTRO

Can you stand by what you sell?

The electronic National Vendor Declaration (eNVD) system is a faster, easier digital alternative to completing the LPA NVD for accredited producers, feedlots and value chain stakeholders. It reduces time spent completing assurance and health declarations and means you are always using the latest version, plus it's free!

This session will step through using the eNVD and how it can streamline livestock movements and transactions throughout the supply chain. Have your questions answered and find out what developments are in store for the eNVD in 2021.
