

Sheep and goat eID National Implementation Plan – updated 24 May 2024

State or territory	All sheep and farmed goats born on or after this date must be fitted with an accredited NLIS eID device before leaving their property of birth	All sheep and goats must be fitted with an accredited NLIS eID device before leaving a property, regardless of age	Processors scan devices and notify movements to the NLIS database	Saleyards scan devices and notify movements to the NLIS database	Property to property movement scanned and recorded on the NLIS database
Australian Capital Territory	1 January 2025	1 January 2027	N/A - no abattoirs in the ACT	N/A - no saleyards in the ACT	1 January 2025
New South Wales	1 January 2025	1 January 2027	30 June 2024	1 January 2025	1 January 2025
Northern Territory	1 January 2025	1 January 2025	1 January 2025	1 January 2025	1 January 2025
Queensland	1 January 2025	1 January 2027	1 January 2025	1 January 2025	1 January 2025
South Australia	1 January 2025	1 January 2027	1 January 2025	1 July 2025	1 January 2025
Tasmania	1 January 2025	1 January 2027	1 January 2025	1 January 2025	1 January 2025
Western Australia	* Must be fitted with an eID device within 6 months or before leaving property of birth (whichever is earlier) 1 January 2025	1 July 2026	1 July 2025	1 July 2025	1 July 2026
Victoria (implemented)	1 January 2017	1 January 2022	31 December 2017	31 March 2018	31 March 2018